

RISE at Rutgers Research Symposium

Wednesday, July 31

9 AM - 2 PM

Richard Weeks Hall

500 Bartholomew Road
Piscataway, NJ 08854

Keynote Speaker

Cato T. Laurencin, MD, PhD

University Professor
Albert & Wilda Van Dusen Distinguished Endowed
Professor of Orthopaedic Surgery
University of Connecticut

“Regenerative Engineering: My Pioneering Journey.”

Featuring student research from RISE at Rutgers and partner programs:

- Advanced Materials*      Protein Data Bank
- Cellular Bioengineering*      Ernest Mario School of Pharmacy (SURF)
- Cyberinfrastructure for AI for Science and Society(CASS)

With additional support from the NJ Space Grant Consortium, Waksman Institute, Aman Armaan Ahmed Family, GB Shreiber Foundation, and faculty research grants.

*NSF Research Experience for Undergraduates (REU) sites

rise.rutgers.edu | rise@grad.rutgers.edu | 848-932-6584

More details on our webpage

